

THE 5th ANNUAL DENVER NATIONAL QUILT FESTIVAL RETURNS TO THE MERCHANDISE MART APRIL 29 – MAY 2, 2010

Extra! Extra! Read all about it! Mancuso Show Management announces that the Denver National Quilt Festival will be held once again at the Merchandise Mart, Denver, Colorado April 29 – May 2, 2010. The “Mile High City,” one of America’s most scenic and entertaining spots, welcomes back an amazing and unique collection of quilt and textile art from across the country. Also featured are fascinating workshops and lectures and the Merchants Mall offering everything quilter and textile artists need to fill up their stash shelves, finish that quilt and start the next masterpiece.

Denver National Quilt Festival features a juried and judged prize money competition themed, “The Rocky Road to Success.” Quilt artists are known to strive for “that road to perfection” that only a fellow quilter can understand. Entrants were asked what roads to perfections they traveled with their competition entry. Also on display are regional as well as national special exhibitions that will send you straight back to your sewing room with inspiration.
